Dear <>,

The Southern California Association of Governments (SCAG) is currently undertaking review of its public participation process relative to its transportation planning and programming activities. Attached for your review is SCAG's proposed, amended Public Participation Plan ("Public Participation Plan, Amendment No. 1"), which includes strategies, procedures and techniques related to public participation on SCAG's Regional Transportation Plan (RTP), Regional Transportation Improvement Program (RTIP), and Overall Work Program (see, Appendix "A" of the Public Participation Plan, Amendment No. 1)

In order to engage and consult with interested parties in development of SCAG's public participation process, SCAG seeks your input on the above-mentioned strategies, procedures and techniques. We are also available to discuss this with you in person or by phone, should you desire.

In any event, recognizing constraints related to time and resources, SCAG would request your response to this letter. Therefore, please return the bottom part of this letter, noting your respective response. Please transmit your response no later than Monday, July 9, 2007, to _____ via fax (213) 236-1963; by email to _____; or by mail to : _____
(Rich/Rose- Please fill in the blanks.)

Sincerely,

I have received SCAG's Public Participation Plan, Amendment No. 1, and:

- ☐ Agree with the documentation, and have no comments.
- ☐ Disagree with the documentation. Attached are my comments
- ☐ I am not able to review and provide comments on the documentation, but appreciate SCAG's efforts regarding consultation on its public participation process.
